

WIFE Regulated Her Husband's Play.

Made Him Admit That He Was Drunk.

John Curran's Bond Was Ordered Forfeited.

Young Man Fined Heavily For Striking Woman.

Thomas Junius, colored, was arraigned in Police court, Monday morning, on charge of intoxication. "I wasn't drunk," said Thomas to the Mayor, when his case was called. "I was just standing down town talking to a man."

"He was too, Your Honor," said Mrs. Junius, who was present in court with three little Juniuses. "He was drunk when he left home." She then plucked Thomas by the sleeve, and urged him to plead guilty and have it over with. Thomas scraped his feet and mumbled and said, "Well, I did have a few drinks."

"Two and costs," said the Mayor. At the Central hotel, on North Howard st., which is conducted by John Her, there was a half-pulling match Sunday between Edward Zimmerman and another boarder, which ended in a fight and the arrest of Edward. He pleaded not guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct, and the case will be heard Tuesday.

The name of John Curran, arrested for disorderly conduct Saturday and released on bail, was called three times in Police court and John failed to appear. His bond of $50 was ordered forfeited. John A. Sanderson is security.

"James Kelly, you are charged with intoxication. Are you guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty, Your Honor."

"We've had a lot of Kellys in here in the past."

"I'm not one of them Kellys, Your Honor."

James was fined $2 and costs. He was very anxious, when brought into court Monday morning, to know how much money was found on him when searched, and inquired if his watch was safe. Out of $30 he claimed to have had when he started out for a time, Saturday night, there remained only a small amount of change when he was arrested.

Walter Curtis, arrested for assault and battery on Helen Starr, was fined $20 and costs by the Mayor, "because you struck a woman. There is no provocation which will justify a man for an act of that kind," said the Mayor in passing sentence.

James McCale and James Peck were fined $2 and costs for intoxication.

CHASED BY A MOB.

Policeman Dare Not Show Himself Inside the Town.

Ferne, B. C., May 20.—Chased by an angry mob of 500 citizens, William Stevens, a provincial policeman, has lost no time in placing himself outside the town limits. Stevens incensed the miners by stating that he wished 250 more miners had been killed in the explosion Thursday night, last.

Careful and conservative checking of information from all sources now leads to the place of the number of killed by the explosion at the Crow's Nest Coal company's mines at 151. Fifty bodies have been recovered.

VERY PROMINENT WOMEN.

The recent publication of 31 letters, in which conspicuous American women frankly tell of their experience with Wine of Cardui with the hope of attracting much attention. These letters are from women of the first rank—public speakers, club members, well known singers, authors, social leaders and professional women. Among the writers are: Mrs. Ida McDonald, No. 477 Beaubien st., Detroit, Mich., Supreme deputy of the Macabees of the World; Mrs. Clementine Richmond of Chicago, vice president of the Forum club; Mrs. Helena Blau, a prominent society woman of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. Laura S. Webb, vice president of the Woman's Democratic club of Northern Ohio; Miss Fay Lee, president of the Shakespearean club, of Kansas City; and Madame Rosa Mariani, 2925 Wabash ave., Chicago, president of the Chicago French Singers' association. Madame Mariani's letter follows:

"I consider Wine of Cardui better than doctors' prescriptions or any other remedy for female trouble. I have tried many, both in this country and abroad, having been a sufferer eleven years, and nothing cured me until I used your remedy. I had such excruciating pains at times that I wanted to die, and indeed a life of suffering is not alluring to any one. Your splendid medicine strengthened my nerves, restored my appetite and built up the entire system and I now enjoy perfect health."

The letters of these reputable women are bringing Wine of Cardui to many sufferers but they are not more convincing of the merits of Wine of Cardui in the treatment of female diseases than thousands of others that have been written by ladies in humble walks of life, but these women are widely known, not only in the communities where they reside but throughout the whole of America, and everybody who knows them will be assured that any statement they make is absolutely true.

RUBBER NEWS

Saunders' Ball Given Test.

Believed That It Is a Winner.

A new golf ball—the one invented by Mr. A. T. Saunders—was given a trial on the Portage course Saturday and much is claimed for it. The principle applied in the ball's manufacture is the same as that of the pneumatic tire—compressed air in a tight case. If the ball can be manufactured successfully it will be a winner. The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. has made the samples which were tried.

Rapid progress is now being made at the plant of the Stein Double Cushion Tire Co. Mr. Jacob Haber, general head of the new company, is here giving the work his personal attention.

The organization of the new Summit Rubber Co., has not yet been completed. The factory, however, is nearly finished and it is expected to begin operations in two weeks. Most of the machinery has already arrived.
